

The 2025 ISJAC Honors Celebration & Fundraiser

September 30th - Dizzy's Club

Sponsorship Opportunities

The International Society of Jazz Arrangers & Composers is the only nonprofit dedicated solely to serving and advocating on behalf of the international community of jazz composers and arrangers. Our first ever Honors Celebration is a night to raise funds for our programming, premier new works by our commission winners and acknowledge our Hall of Fame inductees. Sponsors have an opportunity to help us make this night a success for our honorees and for the extensive programming that we offer our community.

Arranger Sponsor - $250

- Your name and/or logo in the evening's program (will be either paper or on-screen)
- A gift from ISJAC

Composer Sponsor - $500

All of the above plus:

- One ticket to the event at Dizzy's
- A "thank you" mention onstage during the program at Dizzy's Club
- A post show photo-op with ISJAC President John Beasley and board members

Orchestrator Sponsor - $1000

All of the above plus:

- Two tickets to the Dizzy's event and VIP reception after the performance, which includes complimentary champagne and hors d'oeuvres
- Your name credited additionally as one of our sponsors for an upcoming Duly Noted Webinar, as part of our online programming. Visit isjac.org to learn more about our webinars

Maestro Event Sponsor - $5000

All of the above plus:

- A prime table for four at Dizzy's and the VIP reception after the performance which includes complimentary champagne and hors d'oeuvres
- The ISJAC VIP afterparty will be credited to you as "sponsored by"
- An event poster signed by ISJAC President John Beasley and his Monkestra

To become a sponsor, make a donation, or learn more about ISJAC please reach out to our Managing Director Erica von Kleist at erica@isjac.org

Who We Are...

Established in 2016 by composer Chuck Owen, trumpeter Brian Coyle and trombonist Dave Stamps, ISJAC came about based on a need to address issues unique to the community of jazz composers & arrangers and to provide our members with targeted resources and opportunities.

Our programming includes informative webinars, networking events, live streamed reading sessions, our Prize Program (over $10k annually), our artist blog and our bi-annual Jazz Composers Summit, set to take place in May 2026

ISJAC members hail from over a dozen countries and include composers from all career levels, from students to Grammy-winning artists. This year are proud to be collaborating and partnering with The Recording Academy, University of South Florida, iJazz Music, Jazz Composers Present.com on our various programs.

About the Celebration

On September 30th at Dizzy's Club, ISJAC will host its first ever Honors Celebration & Fundraiser. Featuring our President John Beasley and his MONKestra, this evening will acknowledge our Hall of Fame Inductees Maria Schneider, John Coltrane, Oliver Nelson, Pat Metheny and Antônio Carlos Jobim and feature world premiers of works by Geoffrey Keezer and Vanessa Perica, winners of ISJAC's Next Decade and Fundamental Freedoms commissions. Special guests will be in attendance to both perform with the band and accept the Hall of Fame honors on behalf of our inductees.

After the performance, the ISJAC Board of Directors will host a VIP cocktail party at All & Sundry, across the street from the Time Warner Center to raise a toast to our honorees and esteemed guests.

Through the evening's fundraising efforts, ISJAC aims to deepen its already robust program offerings and provide a world-class experience for our members at the 2026 Jazz Composers Summit.

Links for tickets to both the performance at Dizzy's and the VIP afterparty will be available at isjac.org. Availability will be limited, so reserve your ticket early.

To learn more about our programs, membership and events visit www.isjac.org or email us at admin@isjac.org